Strong presence for Pakistan at APLF

This year 65 Pakistani exporters took part in the APLF exhibition in Hong Kong, including tanners specialising in finished cow, buffalo, sheep and goat leather, producers of leather garments and manufacturers of other finished products, including footwear, gloves and accessories.

SM Muneer, chief executive of the country's Trade Development Authority, formally opened the Pakistan pavilion at the exhibition.

Ethiopian Blues

A warning that the situation of the leather industry in Ethiopia may be less rosy than some 'internal' reports have suggested.
